Three Negroes Lynched Near New Orleans

MURDERED AND ROBBED A MAN

Masked and Armed Men Stopped a Train and Took the Prisoners Off. No Clue to the Lynchers.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Orleans, Dec. 14—Thos. Jones, James Lavigne and another man whose name was not known, all negroes, were hanged to one tree near the little town of St. Gabriel, early this morning.

Three other negroes were tied to a tree and whipped nearly to death and ordered to leave the town as quickly as possible.

George Burbur, a store keeper on the plantation at St. Gabriel, was murdered on November 27th. The murderers robbed the store of considerable money and a few days later the negroes were accused and found guilty. They were on the way to New Orleans, when armed masked men stopped the train 3 miles from here and demanded the prisoners. They disappeared with them and this morning all three were found hanging to one tree.

LAST DAY OF THE CONVENTION.

Great Enthusiasm Over the Female University.

Rev. Charles Durham, of Gastonia, passed through last night on his way home from the Baptist convention at Oxford.

It was a very successful convention all round. The balance of $350 due state missions was paid off.

E. W. Sikes was elected to the chair of history and political economy at Wake Forest College.

The convention also raised $600 for the North Carolina students at the Seminary at Louisville, Ky.

The convention visited in a body the Oxford Female Seminary, where they were received by the president and entertained with a musical program by the young ladies.

At night addresses were made on the Baptist Female University at Raleigh and amid great enthusiasm $5,000 in cash and pledges was raised for the institution.

The course of the Biblical Recorder was endorsed and an important meeting of the woman's missionary society held.

Clara Schumann Ladies Orchestra.

Manager Blackburn is negotiating with the manager of the famous Clara Schumann Ladies' Orchestra. It is said this company of 18 artists, 16 ladies will commend itself to every lover of high class entertainment. Its novelty, its versatility, and its general excellence will make enthusiastic admirers. The Instrumental work of this Orchestra has been pronounced equal to that of the great organizations of Sousa, Gilmore and Thomas.

The Orchestra has a large repertoire which includes all of the latest popular music, Descriptive Pieces, Standard, Sacred and National Airs. Of this excellent attraction the Chrysostomos Literary Society of Thiel College, Greenville, Pa. says:

"We take especial pleasure in recommending the Clara Schumann Ladies' Orchestra to the music-loving people and the public at large. Beyond question they are the finest Musical Organization that has appeared before us in years. The graceful appearance of the young ladies, together with their high musical ability and artistic rendition of the various selections captivated the large audience by storm."

At the Academy Music Last Night.

A small but enthusiastic crowd heard the Frances Hughes concert company last night. They more than ever impressed the audience with the fact that they are all finished artists and the criticism was, without an exception, favorable.

It would be injustice to single out either of the artists for special mention, as each is equally accomplished. The quartette, "Harp of the Winds," was the most exquisite musical production heard in Greensboro this season.

A NATIONAL BANKRUPTCY.

Fire is Consuming Dover Castle and a Whole Block of Buildings is Doomed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 14—A national bankruptcy bill similar in its substantial features to the Henderson-Cuthbertson bill passed by the House of Representatives last session will be reported to the house this week. The committee believe that its prospects of being enacted into a law are good. The house sub-judiciary committee on bankruptcy in its session today finally agreed upon the bill and will report it tomorrow to the full committee and it will likely be put through without any change of significance.

DOVER CASTLE BURNING.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Dover, Eng., Dec. 14—Fire was discovered in the precincts of Dover Castle this morning. A strong wind was blowing and the efforts of the entire garrison could not prevent the flames from spreading.

The offices were gutted and another block of buildings a hundred yards in extent is ablaze and there is no hope of saving any part of it. The flames have reached the castle and it is feared the structure is doomed.

REFORMISTS AFTER WEYLER.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Dec. 14.—The newspapers here say that the Cuban reformists, at the re-opening of the Cortex, will demand the trial of General Weyler. He received the leaders of the conservatives and several generals yesterday.

WEYLER'S WELCOME AT MADRID

Carried a Third of a Mile by a Cheering Crowd.

A special despatch of December 13th to the Sun says:

Gen. Weyler arrived here today. At the instance of Senor Romero Robledo 2,000 Carlists, Republicans and others gathered at the railway station to welcome the ex-Captain-General of Cuba. As Gen. Weyler emerged from the train the crowd cheered him. Just as he was about to step into his carriage a band of his admirers surrounded him, and, lifting him upon their shoulders, carried him a third of a mile, the crowd following and cheering loudly. When this distance had been covered Gen. Weyler was allowed to take a seat in an open carriage, and the remainder of the way to his hotel was traversed without his receiving any popular notice. The enthusiasm of his supporters evaporated when they entered the main streets of the city. The citizens generally were indifferent to Weyler's presence.

A Corner of Curios.

One of the unique features of the Bazaar which begins in the McAdoo building on East Market street on Thursday will be a collection of curios to which a corner of the room will be surrendered.

A gentleman who has been something of a globe trotter and has picked up the articles in "furren parts" and out o' the way places has kindly consented to lend the bazaar the collection. It is said to be one of the finest in the South, if not in the country. It is made up of those queer and outlandish things that everybody would have an interest in. All most every country and every phase of civilization are represented.

News Items of General Interest about Pastors of Churches.

Correspondence Telegram.

Fayetteville, N. C. Dec. 13—Yesterday morning after the delivery of the sermon by Rev. A. J. McKelway, the congregation of the Presbyterian church of this city by a practically unanimous vote elected Rev. H. T. Graham, at present assistant pastor, to succeed Rev. A. J. McKelway, whose pastoral relations were recently dissolved by Fayetteville Presbytery, in order that the latter may take the editorship of the North Carolina Presbyterian and the superintendency of Synodical Home Missions.

Mr. Graham has done much useful work as missionary in Japan; like his predecessor, he is a young man and also like him, he has a wife who will be a noble helpmeet in his work. Fayetteville people have rarely welcomed to their midst two more lovely and accomplished women than Mrs. McKelway and Mrs. Graham. The election of assistant pastor was left to the elders of the church.

The Hay Street Methodist church protested vehemently against the recent conference appointment of Rev. J. O. Guthrie to its pastorate, and the difficulty may end in the retention of Rev. Dr. Nash.

Mr. E. Williamson, of Burlington, N. C., has purchased the property of the Phœnix Manufacturing Company and will commence as soon as possible, operating 5,000 cotton spindles.

There is a project in agitation here for the construction of a railroad from this place to Southern Pines, the accomplishment of which would bring great benefits to this section, especially the western part of this county.

THE FARALLON ISLANDS

Have Been Planted With Lobsters from Massachusetts.

The Farallon Islands have seldom had occasion to be congratulated, but they have it now. They have been planted with lobsters from Massachusetts.

The air is plaintive with regrets because the lobster is unable to keep up with the demand for him. The pace is too hot, and he dwindles, peaks and pines.

Off San Francisco, in the atmosphere, he may be allowed to grow to years of discretion. The west may revive the east. There are many things to be grateful for in the waters, and it is right to say that if the world had no other reason for existence than the fact that it is a medium for lobsters, its place of honor in the eternal emanations of matter would still be too high for rivalry. And those who are just and good enough to venerate the lobster will have no difficulty in believing that when there are no more lobsters of full size left, the world will retire from business, sadly but firmly. —N. Y. Sun.

ALLIANCE SHOE FACTORY.

Started Yesterday With a Capacity of Fifty Pair a Day.

At last the shoe factory at Hillsboro has started up. It began operation yesterday morning with a capacity of 50 pair of shoes a day. Most of the workmen now employed are skilled men but others will be employed from time to time and taught. With a full force of skilled hands the factory can turn out 300 pair of shoes a day. Mr. W. O. Roberts, of Asheville, is superintendent of the factory, which is owned and operated by the State Farmers' Alliance.

Already there have been enough orders for shoes received to keep the factory running for sometime.—News and Observer.

Dividing up China.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 13—The Novosti says the absence of protests from the other powers at Germany's evident determination to remain at Kiao Chou Bay, indicates that the partition of China has actually begun and will proceed quickly.

Another newspaper expresses the belief that the United States, among other powers, may object to the permanent occupation of Kiao Chou Bay by Germany.

Russian official circles, however, appear indifferent to the step taken by Germany.

Senator McLaurin's Illness.

Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina is confined to his home on B. street northeast with typhoid fever. He is attended by Dr. Sterling Ruffin, who stated to a reporter of The Star this morning that he anticipated an early termination of the dread disease, as the senator had but a mild attack. —Washington Star.

UNDER A MOUND OF FLOWERS

Tribute to the Mother of the Nation's President

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT FAURE

Burning Town is Looted by Polish Miners—The Fire Originated in a Livery Stable.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Canton, Dec. 14—Mother McKinley was temporarily buried this morning under a mound of flowers in one of the silent rooms of the old homestead here.

A cable message was received containing a message of symyathy from President Faure and the people of France.

Messages were also received from the American Ambassadors abroad, the foreign legations at Washington, the governors of the different states, congressmen, grand army men and others.

All the members of the cabinet except Gage have arrived at Canton to attend the funeral.

WORK OF THE FLAMES.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 14—A large part of the business portion of Durea was burned last night. Before the flames caught a large store belonging to Simpson and Watkins, a crowd of Polish miners began to loot it. They carried off thousands of dollars worth of goods. Several miners were severely hurt. The flames caught several other larger buildings. Five buildings were destroyed. The fire started in Gerry Dill's livery stable.

STEAMER REACHES PLYMOUTH.

Was Overdue and Had Been Slightly Disabled.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Plymouth, Eng., Dec. 14—The French steamer Latouvaine, Captain Sautelle, from New York to Havre, which should have arrived there on last Sunday, stopped off the Lizard this morning at 4 o'clock and signaled that she was not under control.

To Suppress the Dreyfus Papers.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Dec. 14.—The Government contemplates the suppression of those newspapers which, it is alleged, are systematically inventing Dreyfus stories.

Asheville Bank Pays Off.

Washington, Dec. 13—The shareholders of the National Bank, of Asheville, N. C., which failed in October, having borrowed money on their individual guarantee sufficient to pay all demand obligations, the comptroller has permitted the bank to close up its affairs by voluntary liquidation instead of through a receiver.

The plan was outlined by Deputy Comptroller Coffin, who visited Asheville for the purpose, after the failure, and disbursing about $60,000 cash to depositors, will tend, it is said, to relieve the hardships resulting from three bank failures in that city.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

THE LAUREATE OF THE LINKS.

Nelson Morris, of Chicago, packer of pork and grinder of sausage, has called his son off from writing books, which was probably as well if he partook in the smallest degree of the attributes of his father, and set him to grinding sausage also. He might have waited at least until his aesthetic progeny had completed a "Lay of the Sausage Grinder," a "Sonnet to a Ham" and a monogram on the "Links That I Have Hung." But that is neither here nor there. Mr. Morris thought his son could grind out links better than stanzas; we doubt not Mr. Morris showed penetration therein. But Mr. Morris, out of his fat experience, chooses to favor the public with some joints of wisdom. Mr. Morris says: A million men can write books but few can supervise a large commercial enterprise, which when well conducted, is a blessing to the world at large." Mr. Morris you will observe uses here an oleaginous euphuism. By "managing etc." he would have us know that only a man of transcendental talent can stuff a sausage as it should be stuffed and only a "Mute inglorious Milton" can impart to a pickled pig's foot that especial flavor that has marked and distinguished the Morris brand.

There is a note of wounded pride in this plaint of the pork packer that indicates with what base ingratitude the world has under-estimated its indebtedness to his porkine nibs. Who shall compare a drama of Shakespeare to a well seasoned ham? Who dare with the odor of a Morris sausage still fresh upon his breath mention a sonnet of Petrarch or trill a lyric of Keats? The world has never come to a realizing sense of what it owes its pork packers. It should crown the summit of Mr. Morris with a festoon of links, dabble his imperial brow in an eternal halo of sausages.

There is a good deal of talk going the rounds about the convention of cotton growers whose purpose it is to curtail the cotton acreage. And it will all end in talk. The scheme has been tried before, more than once, and has been a dismal failure in every instance. As well talk to the opium fiend or the confirmed drunkard about curtailing his quota of what he will admit is killing him, as to talk reduced acreage to the chronic cotton farmer. He will admit to you that it does not pay the cost of production and next year put in twenty acres more—probably to make up the deficit. What is the good of talking and convening then? Every farmer will agree that too much cotton is planted; and every time the staple shows the slightest sign of rallying in price he will increase his cotton acreage. May as well save time, railroad fare and vocal cords.

The citizens of Chicago are forming vigilance committees to put a stop to highway robbery. Chicago Aldermen will probably regard this as a piece of gross impertinence.

In view of the vast expanse of what Hayti did not do to Germany we can afford to regard her displeasure with a limited share of equinimity.

A most wonderful and versatile man is Secretary Gage. So lightly do the cares of providing the wherewithal to settle pensions and congressional mileage sit upon his shoulders; so easy is it for him envolve a scheme of currency revision that will put a quietus on the troublesome ghost of bimetallism that he feels the necessity of devoting the fallow acreage of his brain to something, and so falls afoul of the imagination question and takes a few of the curly places out it that had been troubling ordinary statesmen for some time. Great and wonderful is Gage.

Thomas B. Reed has issued a mandate to the effect that no "riders" are to be tacked onto appropriations in the Senate. Thomas B. has evidently never hung his anemometer in a senatorial breeze.

A gas leak is said to be giving the New York authorities a great deal of trouble. Can it be that some thoughtless person has blown out Chauncey Depew or the Hon. Bourke Cockran?

So strange are the things that come to pass that the New York Sun is accusing the Evening Post of inconstancy to political ideals. Shades of Senator Palmer and Benedict Arnold!

The Wrong Name.

A number of "gentlemen" in Cleveland, Ohio, have organized a club which is formed for the sole purpose of opposing the man's habit of giving up seats in the street cars to ladies. The club already has two hundred members and the membership is limited to three hundred.

The Cleveland newspapers say that the influence of this noble organization is already felt in that city and that the spectacle is common of aged women, weak women, women carrying children in their arms and women laden with packages swinging with one hand to a car strap or tottering or falling when the car starts or stops suddenly, or when it shoots around a curve.

The "gentlemen" who have made a vow never to give a street car seat to a lady must enjoy these evidences of their firmness and power. Of course a big strapping man who wants to keep a seat in a street car while a woman suffers for want of one cannot be made to act otherwise, but we have one criticism to make on the Cleveland organization. It calls itself "The Sit-Down Club." The name is not sufficiently significant. The concern should be known as "The United Brotherhood of Street Car Hogs."—Atlanta Journal.

She sued for $10,000. Three juries have decided in favor of the defendant. The Supreme Court has twice granted the plaintiff new trials.

The Weekly Journal is a large paper, containing ten pages of seven columns each.

It is filled with the Latest News of the day, both domestic and foreign. Owning its own leased telegraphic wires, which are used for no other purpose but to bring the latest news to its editorial rooms, The Journal is prepared to get all the news up to the latest moment.

In addition to the news, it contains more special features than any other southern weekly. Among other things it has a weekly letter or sermon from Rev. Sam Jones, a contribution from Hon. John Temple Graves, letters of travel, biographies of distinguished men, and many other attractive features.

The Weekly Journal is beautifully illustrated by its own artist. In fact neither energy nor money is spared to make it the Great Southern Weekly:

CALENDAR FREE.

And the price is only Fifty Cents a Year. To every subscriber sending fifty cents for a year's subscription and a two-cent postage stamp extra (to pay postage) a beautiful lithographed calendar for 1898 will be sent free. Specimen copies free.

that a few years since, while living in a malarial district, I suffered dreadfully with chills, which it seemed impossible to break. A friend urged me to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I did so, and by the use of a few bottles they were entirely broken broken, and I have not been troubled with them since. I also found it an excellent nervine.

CLAWED BY A TIGER.

Jerseyman Says Wild Beasts Lose Their Fierceness in Philadelphia.

New York, Dec. 13—John E. Smith, of 120 Sussex avenue, Newark, while visiting Central park, wandered into the lion house and became greatly interested in the tigers.

He finally bought some peanuts and, walking up to the cage, thrust them in through the bars. Prince, the largest of the tigers, disdained the peanuts, but made a grab for the hand that offered them.

Its paws caught Smith's coat and tore the sleeve to shreds. The claws dug into the Jerseyman's right hand and in a minute Smith was bleeding. He managed to extricate his hand before any more damage was done. The sight of blood seemed to enrage the tiger and it tore at the bars. His roars alarmed the spectators, so there was a general exodus from the building.

Smith was taken to the hospital, where his wounds were dressed. He explained that he had lived for a long time in Philadelphia, where the animals at the Zoo were so tame that they could be fed with impunity.

COSMOPOLITAN NEW YORK.

Chinese Interpreter Found Useful in at Least one Department Store.

New York, N. Y., December 13—French, German, Spanish and Italian interpreters are ordinary adjuncts of the big department stores. Russia and Hebrew interpreters are less frequent, but not uncommon.

In one of the big stores in Grand street there is a Chinese interpreter. Last month he attended to the wants of 800 of his countrymen and more than paid his salary in profits. The principal purchases of the Chinese consist of sheeting for the covering of ironing boards, of blankets and of underwear. Other articles are preferably bought of their fellow countrymen.

GERMANS AT KIAO CHOU.

Will Work Coal Beds 100 Kilometres Distant.

Berlin, Dec. 13—Companies are already being formed to work the coal beds at Wei, which is nearly 100 kilometres from Kiao Chou Bay, the part of China recently seized by Germany. These companies propose to construct railways to Wei, to erect storehouses, etc.

According to a dispatch from Shanghai the Germans are already collecting the customs and arranging the administration of Kiao Chou.

A long Drive.

An Oxford special to the Charlotte Observer says:

Mr. Bumpass, a former citizen of Person county, a cripple on crutches, arrived in the city Saturnay afternoon from Oklahoma after being 3 months on the journey, having made the entire trip in a buggy, driving the same horse the whole distance.

Mr. Bumpass brought with him two prairie ponies, which were led the entire distance.

Shoe Selection

Is Easy Here,

The style you want, the durability you want and the price you can afford to pay are all considered and provided before you come. Its wonderful how good a shoe a very little money will buy now. That's because inventive genius and enterprise have made shoe making an exact science. The making of a pair of shoes today is about as simple a matter as when the first shoemaker wove his sandals of papyrus on the banks of the Nile.
